

Classes for Twos

Two year old students can meet two or three mornings per week - Monday and Wednesday, or Tuesday and Thursday, or Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Children are nurtured as they are introduced to the concept of being without their parents. A gathering time, free play, project, snack and outside play time fill up the two and one half hours. Curriculum is centered around early literacy concepts of colors, shapes and word play, through Bible stories and nursery rhymes.

Classes for Threes

Three year old students have the option of attending two, three, or five days per week: Monday, Wednesday and Friday, morning, or Tuesday and Thursday morning or Monday-Friday morning. Three year olds "work" on letter recognition and beginning number skills. Again these concepts are casually introduced through discovery, play, stories, nursery rhymes and literature. Three year olds also receive the Scholastic magazine, "Clifford... the Big Red Dog" on a monthly basis. This publication is a wonderful resource for use in both the classroom and at home.

Pre-Kindergarten

Pre-Kindergarten classes are designed to provide children classroom experiences through play and hands on learning activities that enhance growth in the areas of social-emotional and cognitive development. Using "Big Day for Pre-K" literature-based curriculum enriches the learning as well.

Our pre-kindergarten opportunities:

3 or 5 half days (9:00 to 12 noon)

AND

Extended day (X-Bunch) available Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays 12 noon to 3 pm. X-Bunch children have lunch together, a recess period and then resume class time. X-Bunch will provide children themed, center-based activities throughout the year that will further develop their classroom experience.

Inside we have bright and airy classrooms, and full use of all facilities including the church kitchen and Fellowship Hall, and the Multi-Purpose Room. Child-created work is always on display not only in the classrooms, but in the halls as well.

Our Programs

All areas of growth and learning are integrated into a Christ-centered program which includes language and reading readiness, communication and socialization, fine and gross motor skills, self-reliance, listening and sharing and recognizing oneself and others as children of a loving God. We offer programs for two, three, four and five year old children.

Our school day is 9:00 am to 12 noon. Daily lunch bunch is available from 12 noon to 3:00, along with special, optional classes to enhance lunch bunch such as soccer, art, cooking and more! Our Pre-K classes also have an afternoon "X-Bunch" program from 12 noon to 3 pm on Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays.
